

On September 27th, 2007 I asked Jesus into my life and on Oct 16th I was released from prison and moved into Sarah's House. I asked to come to Sarah's House so that I could learn more about Jesus in a safe environment. Since coming to Sarah's House I have had some bad times and some good times but it was the 2nd best decision of my life. The best decision I have ever made was asking Jesus to save me.

To sum up the way I feel about Sarah's House I would have to say that it is everything a child could ever dream of. Having a mom and dad that are my spiritual parents to help me grow and learn more about the Lord. Jon and Peggy are guiding me and won't give up until I succeed. They have showed me how to budget my paycheck and do my taxes. Basically they are teaching me everything that they taught their own children. It's like being one of theirs. They let me know that nothing comes easy but it's worth it.
